ABOUT

Wilany Germano is an Amsterdam-based solo artist working across indie pop, bedroom pop and alternative music. Built first through live rooms rather than releases, the project grew through a self-booked European run across London, Paris, Copenhagen and Amsterdam, followed by further shows around the Netherlands and Europe. Now & Then, out 15 September 2026, opens Dreamer, a debut album unfolding through March 2027. The new chapter centers intimate songwriting, cinematic visual language and live performance.
